

International Department Staff

Dean of International Students - Mrs J McMurray, BA, Dip Tchg

Mrs McMurray has taught Geography, English, Social Studies, Reading and ESOL and been a Guidance Counsellor in New Zealand and Asia. She has worked with international students for more than 25 years and is passionate about excellent pastoral care for individual students so they can maximise all the learning opportunities available at One Tree Hill College and outside the classroom. Her role also includes enrolments, timetabling and the academic oversight of each student. Mrs McMurray is available 24/7.

Learning Support Teacher - Mrs L Li, BSc (China)

Mrs Li has had 10 years' experience in NZ classrooms as a learning support teacher in Mathematics, Computing and Science. She is a fluent speaker of Mandarin, Japanese and English and runs lunchtime and holiday tutorials for students requiring further help. She understands and enjoys working with teenagers and they appreciate her academic encouragement and support and her friendly approachable manner.

Homestay Coordinator - Ms R Hauraki

Ms Hauraki connects with families in our community. She carefully selects and monitors all homestay placements. She has an office at school and is available for students and families every day. They all enjoy her very engaging and friendly approach to her work. She enjoys working with our families and with the students, and has had 15 years' experience working in support staff roles in various Auckland schools.
